WINS GREAT VICTORY AT POLLS

CLEVELAND BAKER IS NOW NEVADA OFFICIAL

Prominent Former Oakland Young Man Defeats Two Opponents for District Attorneyship of Nye County.

Cleveland Baker, well known in Oakland, being courted by his friends on the splendid showing he made in his race for the assistant attorneyship in Nye county. No. 1. The last returns given show that he now has that he received more votes than both his opponents received together.

Besides this, his election was the more remarkable because of the fact that he carried every precinct in the county.

In view of the fact that Baker went to Nevada a stranger, his success is the talk of the political week.

Sold out at home, he is polling the largest vote of any man running on a ticket carrying every precinct and beating the votes of two opposing candidates full to one man.

Cleveland Baker is well known socially in both Oakland and San Francisco. He was the most popular Stanford boy, was the leading society man of his time in college. He was president and leader of the varsity glee and mandolin clubs. He was one of the stunt men on the musical clubs trips. He wrote college songs and was one of the authors of a work known as Stanford football song. Baker was also a prominent member of the Zeta Psi fraternity at Stanford. He was graduated in 1904.

In addition to his political success he has early won the hand of Miss Fanny Perkins, daughter of United States Senator Perkins and they are to be married on November 19.

District Attorney Baker will arrive in San Francisco from Sonoma tomorrow and will spend the time before his wedding in visiting in Oakland. After the ceremony he will take his bride on a honeymoon trip and then will return with her to their new home in Sonoma, where the young District Attorney will take up the duties of his office.

BERKELEY, Nov. 6.—Berkeley is to be represented on the Orpheum stage throughout the country in a special lecture which Ber Levy, a travel time artist, is to deliver and illustrate. The Chamber of Commerce has effected arrangements with Levy to use a number of oddities of Berkeley. Tom R. M. Moulton and Harry A. Lane of Los Angeles both lecturers through the eastern states will flash views of the town to their audiences as well.

CLAIMS THAT SHE WAS KNOCKED DOWN STAIRS

Claiming that she had been knocked down stairs and otherwise roughly handled, Miss Loretta Geary has caused the arrest of a man giving the name of R. J. York on a charge of battery. The case has been set for trial on November 13. Cole having pleaded not guilty in the police court this morning.

grandfather, but was so different from the other stones that it required a very close inspection to show that there was not a missing stone.

Chief Wilson Angry

Chief Wilson of the Oakland police this morning very emphatically denied that the Oakland police had been asked to join in the search for Edna Clark. He was led to this because of the fact that Mrs. Mack had stated that when the relatives of the missing girl had visited the Oakland police department they were informed that unless a charge of some sort of crime was made that the police of Oakland would not assist in the search because the girl was of age.

Chief Wilson denied this emphatically. He says that the Oakland police department stands ready now and always has to do anything in the world to help solve the mystery. That the relatives of Miss Clark put the case in the hands of private detectives and not in the hands of the Alameda police.

Miss Reynolds in Case

Miss Edna Reynolds of the Young Women's Christian Association in Oakland is taking a peculiar stand in this matter. Mrs. Mack, the mother of the missing girl, said this morning that Miss Reynolds had never told her anything about Edna Clark's whereabouts but had told her that she knew nothing of her. The police of San Francisco say that Miss Reynolds has given them a very vital clue in the case. This morning Miss Reynolds herself admitted that she had talked previously and given the police information. She would not however discuss the case with the newspapers and very peremptorily ordered a reporter from the place.

Queer Statement

Significant in this connection is the fact that during the discussion between the reporter and Miss Reynolds, another lady seated in the room said:

"EDNA CLARK WILL TURN UP INSIDE OF FOUR DAYS"

This woman would not discuss anything further admitted that she did not know Miss Clark and the assumption is that whatever she knew of the case she gathered from what Miss Reynolds had said. Miss Reynolds is known to have been a good friend of the girl, and to have taken an unusual interest in anything connected with the case, excepting to exactly locate her.

BELIEVE THE MISSING GIRL WAS IN PALO ALTO

(Special to The Tribune) SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—From another source this morning comes information regarding Edna Clark, the missing Alameda art student, which again brings into the mysterious of fair a clerical looking man by the name of Vincent, who has been referred to a number of times and whom even Father Young, who has himself been mentioned and even shadowed at the instance of the girl's family, has admitted having seen in her company on more than one occasion.

This time the message comes from Palo Alto and if the information received by the police is reliable either the missing girl or her double has been found.

PHOTOGRAPHED TOGETHER

Yesterday a young couple who gave the name of Vincent called at Gelt's photographic gallery in Palo Alto to have their photo taken. They appeared rather nervous and directed that the pictures when finished be sent to an address near Mountain View which is seven miles south of the college town.

The man wore a vest which would indicate that he was either a clergyman or a person studying for the church and the girl's description as well as the picture which has been reproduced, is said to correspond in every detail to the much sought for Edna Clark.

The information from Palo Alto was received by Captain of Detective Kilby at 11 o'clock this morning and he immediately notified Captain Petersen of Oakland who it is expected will send a detective after a copy of the picture.

the missing Clark girl. They express themselves as willing to do whatever they can toward clearing up the mystery. As private detectives have charge of the case and had its inception in Alameda the local police have up to this time not been connected with any movement looking toward the location of Miss Clark.

TRAVELER'S PIN WAS LIKE THAT OF CLARK GIRL

ALAMEDA, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Anita Y. Mack, mother of missing Edna Clark identified this morning her jeweled pin which was worn by the young woman answering Edna Clark's description, and who purchased a ticket to Boston from T. A. Duglin, Oakland ticket agent for the Santa Fe on October 7. The young woman buying the ticket were at her neck a jewel pin, in the shape of an interlocking point. Duglin noticed that one of the stones was missing. Edna Clark had such a pin and though none of the stones were missing the impression of a missing stone was clearly given to anyone not examining the pin closely.

POLICE WOULD NOT ACT

Mrs. Mack was asked why the Oakland police were not requested to search for the missing girl. She referred to Mrs. Wilbur's hose husband at that time was in charge of the search and then replied: The Oakland police were asked to find her but when we reported her disappearance we were told that the police would not act unless a crime had been committed. We did not think so, especially at that time.

TOLD TRUTH, SHE SAID.

When asked why Edna Clark's friend Edna Reynolds acted so strangely in refusing to tell the public what she knew of the girl during the last few days before Edna Clark disappeared, Mrs. Mack said: I do not think that Edna Reynolds knows anything about Edna's disappearance. She has not been here for several days but I had a long talk with her and when she had told me all that she apparently knew of Edna, I asked her several times if she knew anything more, if she had any idea where Edna was and begged her to tell me the truth.

WOMAN REFUSED TO TALK

She answered: I am telling you the truth Mrs. Mack. I do not know where Edna is or what has happened. If I knew I would be only too willing to tell.

WHY REFUSED?

When asked why Miss Reynolds reluctantly refused to see the newspaper men and tell of her friendship with Edna Clark and disclose any special confidences which might throw light on the girl's disappearance Mrs. Mack said:

AS I TOLD YOU...

"As I told you, I have not seen Miss Reynolds for several days. I do not know why she refuses to talk, but I cannot believe that she knows anything of the case for she would have told me when I asked her to be sure and tell me everything she knew."

son, who informed the court that he believed justice would be served by suspending sentence in the case of Curtis. After justifying the leniency for Curtis Justice Hough pronounced the sentence upon Morse.

"In the case of Morse there is not much to be said," said Judge Hough. "As in all bank fraud cases, the criminal legality is only part of a larger general scheme. In this case, this was to use the bank and the depositors' money for speculative purposes.

If such a scheme were permitted to be carried out, the public would be at the mercy of a band of adventurers."

Therefore sentence you to fifteen years in the federal prison in Atlanta, Georgia."

Cheers for Curtis

A moment later the crowd began to move slowly out of the courtroom.

Edgar, however, and his wife followed him out, as she was to an anteroom. Morse followed Ex-Judge Elliott, who had represented Curtis in the trial made a touching appeal for leniency on behalf of his client.

Murmur of Approval

There had been a murmur of approval and a faint attempt at applause when sentence upon Curtis was suspended by the court.

When the fate of Morse was announced the courtroom was silent and the first break in the quietness was that of the prisoner's wife and the shuffling of feet as she was to an anteroom. Morse followed Ex-Judge Elliott, who had represented Curtis in the trial made a touching appeal for leniency on behalf of his client.

What an Eminent Medical Man Says Dyspepsia Really Is.
Then Ga n Hope.

"This affection called Dyspepsia is the greatest torment of civilized life, and is to be considered rather as an unnatural physical difficulty than as a structural disease."

The same authority has classified dyspepsia thus: "The first form which is the most common, is that in which there are in a morbid and unequal state, which is characterized as a reflex action. Of such a type is the nausea and vomiting due to irritation of brain, lungs, liver or uterus."

The second form is caused by scanty supply of gastric juice, made evident by food in the stomach, distress for a long time after meals, accompanied by weighty and uneasy feelings at the stomach, accompanied by food in theimentary canal causing fad and foul gases and the appearance of undigested food in the evacuations from bowels.

The third form is that due to gastritis, according to this renowned medical light, that which accompanies some abnormal quality of the gastric juices, causing spasmodic contractions of the stomach's muscles so that this organ cannot sufficiently mix the food with the digestive fluids.

The dyspeptic tablets will remove each condition of a stomach afflicted with dyspepsia as above described.

These tablets contain digestives, which are to aid the stomach. One grain of an ingredient used in these tablets will digest 3000 grains of food, and the tablets will do it a great deal more than the digestion can be seen by the human eye.

They help the stomach, enrich the blood, revitalize the alimentary nerves, and glands. They are recommended by every druggist and 40,000 physicians who use and prescribe them. Price 50c. today. If you send us your name and address we will send you a trial package by mail free.

CASHIER IS FACING CELL

PECULATED FORTUNE IS CHARGE OF BANK

George Hopkins Discovered in Alleged Theft of Funds—Was Getting Money Together for Races.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—George W.

Hopkins, who was arrested last night by Detective O'Dea and lodged at the city prison, accused of the theft of funds amounting to $12,000 belonging to the State Savings and Commercial Bank, of which he was cashier, will be charged with the crime tomorrow morning after the local police have made some further investigations.

It is said that the bank will suffer no loss from the man's peculations, as all or the money has practically been recovered. Three $2000 drafts on outside banks which Hopkins issued to himself have been recovered, according to C. P. Isaac, manager of the bank, and in the neighborhood of $9000 in cash has also been turned over.

It is said that Hopkins was a sober, industrious man and that it is believed he at first only intended taking a little money to spend while on his vacation of three weeks, which was about to commence. Later developments make it seem certain, however, that the man was getting ready a pile to be used at the opening of the racing season, which commences tomorrow. Another opinion is that he intended never coming back after once leaving on his vacation with the stolen money in his possession. No one was allowed to see the defendant at the city prison this morning, although the detective questioned him at some length.

BOY BURGLAR ACCUSED ON THREE COMPLAINTS

Thomas Fitzgerald, the boy burglar who was captured only after occasioning the police and residents throughout the city much uneasiness for a period of six weeks, was arraigned today in the police court on three charges of burglary. The complainants in the cases are A. Johnson of Chetwood and Santa Clara avenues, H. M. Wilson of 1677 Waverly street and Mrs. Eva M. Ayers of 1687 Waverly street.

Fitzgerald was taken into custody while leaving the home of Mrs. Ayers with a bundle of loot under his arm. He had effected entrance to the house by prying open the rear door with a pick. In most instances he effected an entrance with false keys, a large number of them having been found in his possession. Fitzgerald has confessed to a total of twelve burglaries throughout this city.

WILL OF THOMAS CRELLIN

HENDERSON ANSWERS

"be a good and dutiful wife," and took her back to him.

"During the early part of 1904," cites Henderson's cross-complaint, in connection with affairs at the Hotel Crellin, "defendant was shocked and mortified that plaintiff, with other female guests at the hotel, were in the habit of congregating every afternoon and smoking tobacco cigarettes."

About May 1, 1906, Henderson says, Fred Jordan, proprietor of the Crellin Hotel, called upon him and said: "Henderson, you must vacate your rooms in this hotel. We like you all right, but we can't stand for your wife any longer; she is causing a great many of our guests to leave here."

Henderson says he moved from the Crellin and lived at his undertaking parlors at 1300 Webster street. At this address he avers, his wife often stayed in bed until about 10 o'clock in the morning and refused to get up and prepare his breakfast.

She would say to Henderson, avers the paper, "You can go to — and get your own breakfast."

SMOKED, HE SAID.

"Whereupon," the cross-complaint continues, "the plaintiff would continue to lie abed and smoke cigarettes and study what plaintiff termed 'race track dope.'

During the last season of the Emeryville races, Henderson says, his wife spent all the money she could get by playing the races. He says she boasted of running Henderson out of town by driving him into insolvency. The charge is made that Mrs. Henderson threatened to shoot her spouse with a pistol.

Clarence Marshall Jr. accused by Henderson of telling Mrs. Henderson to skating rinks, theaters and the Sardine Rock cafe, where they indulged in liquor until the early morning hours, he says.

The cross-complaint says about Marshall: "That plaintiff's conduct with said Marshall became so arrogant and indecent, that it was so far exceeded the bounds of propriety that the will be admitted to probate, and that letters testamentary be issued to Mrs. Crellin.

No Warrant as Yet For Dunham Suspect

SAN JOSE, Nov. 6.—Owing to unexpected demand on the time of the District Attorney's office today, no complaint was made against Hatfield, the Dunham suspect, but one doubtless will be sworn to tomorrow. It is not expected that this action will result in any new developments, but by giving Hatfield a hearing in a Justice court an official stamp to the statement of former acquaintances of Dunham who have seen Hatfield in jail here and expressed the opinion that he is not Dunham.

Kaiser Never Wrote Wright

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—The dispatch published in a local newspaper this morning to the effect that Wilbur Wright, the American aeroplane, has received a letter from Emperor William congratulating him upon his achievements and inviting him to go to Germany and continue his experiments there, turns out, upon investigation, to be untrue.

MILLS GIRLS TO STAGE TENNYSON'S "FORESTERS"

The students of Mills College will stage Tennyson's "The Foresters" on Saturday afternoon, November 21, in Lissner Hall. The performance will be given under the direction of Miss Clara L. Safford of San Francisco, who will train the players.

Miss Safford is a graduate of the Boston School of Oratory and prominent in San Francisco club circles. She is a member of the Century and Fortnightly clubs.

The music is under the especial direction of Alexander Stewart and will include the music written by Sir Arthur Sullivan for the Henry Irving production given in New York. The incidental music includes solos and choruses, with orchestral accompaniment by college students. The chorus will include thirty of the college girls.

Miss Falken, head of the physical culture department of the college, is training the girls in the dances. Much attention is being paid this feature and it is understood that the spectacular effects will exceed anything previously given at the college.

The four leading roles will be taken by Theresa Cogswell, '12, Robin Hood; Marjorie Morse, '09; Maid Marion; Dora Cohn, '09; Littlejohn; Amy Howe, '09; Kate.

FIRST SNOW FALLS IN NEW YORK CITY

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—New York had its first snow last night, when, in the upper part of the town, a few flakes sifted in on a fifteen mile breeze. The mean temperature yesterday and last night was four degrees below the average for the date, making the day the coldest November day in the history of the local weather bureau.

Mrs. H. Greyce Hanby of 912 Wood street, petitioned the Superior Court this afternoon for letters of administration of the estate of her late husband, Paul N. Hanby, who died October 29, 1908. The estate, valued at $83,34, is left to Mrs. Hanby and her 13-year-old daughter, Virginia.

LEAVE SINKING SHIP FOR PASSING STEAMER

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Seven wrecked seamen who were brought into this port by the German steamer Maria, told a tale of a six days' battle with that battered their little schooner, the R. D. Spear, until they were forced to abandon her on November 1.

The schooner sailed from Philadelphia on October 29th for Calais, Me., with coal. On the night of October she encountered a stiff northeast gale which carried away part of the rigging and sails. The schooner was forced to run before the gale. Later she began leaking.

Just as the crew was about to give up in despair the steamer Maria was sighted. After much difficulty, owing to the huge seas breaking over the water-soaked vessel, the crew managed to launch the life boat and leave the doomed schooner for the Maria.

Henderson presented a letter which he says was written by his wife's mother, Mrs. C. H. Taylor, of Long Prairie, Minn., to her daughter Miss Grace Taylor, an employee of the Century Electrical company, on Broadway. Part of the letter reads as follows and refers to Henderson's wife:

"Dear Daughter: We recently long looked for letter, and although it brought bad news, we were glad to know you were still living, and I am praying that all may be well between Maudie and Ezra. When you write again, will you please let me know if my prayer is answered yet. LEHNHARDT MAKES UP FOR TORN UP STORE BY HAVING FINE DESERT

GETS UP UNUSUALLY EXPENSIVE SUNDAY SPECIAL IN ORDER TO OVERCOME INCONVENIENCES OCCASIONED BY STORE ALTERATIONS—ALSO OFFERS CANDY SPECIAL—DID A BIG PUMPKIN BUSINESS ON HALLOWEEN DAY

"I want to apologize for the torn-up condition of my store," said Lehnhardt, this morning. "And the best apology I know of is to give my friends a great dessert on Sunday, for there is nothing that makes us accept an apology quicker than a good dinner climaxed with a good dessert."

I am going to have a very beautiful store and am rushing the work as fast as is consistent with work of this nature, and hope in a week to be pretty well straightened out. I know Mr. Lehnhardt for his customers to have to put up with all this confusion and really feel under obligations to them. When I decided upon Sunday's special I took this into consideration and made an extra effort to figure out something particularly nice which I know my friends will all greatly appreciate."

The dessert Mr. Lehnhardt mentions will only be sold next Sunday and will be, as usual, in the form of a frozen brick, which will cost 80 cents delivered.

These bricks will consist of a layer of Hazel Nut Ice Cream, a layer of Frozen Apricots and a layer of Crushed Fresh Strawberry Ice Cream. Each brick will be sufficient for eight people and each will be packed in ice in a freezer and will keep for hours.

"Of course, I could make these bricks cheaper," continued Mr. Lehnhardt, "but I don't feel justified in cutting down the quality. In fact, I use only the best of selected fruits. I could buy much cheaper fruit, I wished and perhaps my patrons would not know the difference, but as they come to me for the best that money can buy, it seems to me I ought to see that they get it. Now take the cream, for example. There are several ways of successfully using light creams, but I don't like advertising of them for the reason that my customers just won't do so. I use only the best heavy cream and none of the injurious ingredients in order to save money. My trade seems willing to pay the top price, and I propose to see that they get the top quality."

Mr. Lehnhardt had a great time with his little frozen pumpkins on Halloween. He advertised to make them of ice cream and people not realizing the necessity of ordering early made him a great many calls to get them made fast enough. He expected this morning he expected to have something unique for Thanksgiving and requests that his customers place their orders the night he announces the novelty.

Those who want the Sunday special next Sunday ought to order it tonight; as it is a particularly fine dessert and will undoubtedly prove a big seller.

The Hazel Nut section of this brick is one of Lehnhardt's greatest frozen specialties and is very delicious.

Frozen Apricots are somewhat of a novelty, but equally fine. Strawberries are expensive and good ones hard to get, but Mr. Lehnhardt secured enough, he thinks, for Sunday, which will be crushed and frozen in cream as fast as orders are telephoned in.

Phone all orders to Oakland 497 or Earthquake 4349. Or call at the store on Broadway bet. 13th and 14th.

By all means order tonight or tomorrow, as the latest to be sure of no disappointment.

When you place your order, be sure to get a pound of blanched kidney, a candy being made only tomorrow and Sunday. You'll like it because it is something absolutely new—50 cents a pound.

WOMEN ARE AS ALAMEDA CLUB PERSISTENT AS EVER

When Shouting of Election Dies, Berkeley Suffragettes Win Support of Chamber of Commerce.

BERKELEY, Nov. 6.—The women suffrage advocates are as persistent and as active as ever in the cause of political equality for the sexes, notwithstanding the election is over. Just as the tumult and shouting of Tuesday's contest is dying down comes a flank surprise movement to compel the Chamber of commerce to go on record for the suffrage cause. A delegation headed by Mrs. William Keith, Mrs. N. J. Abbott, Mrs. Elmer Carlisle, Mrs. C. C. Hall and Mrs. Julia S. Sanborn sent a special request at the meeting of the directors last night to endorse the following resolution, which had all been nicely engrossed on parchment and a convenient place provided for the signatures of President Chetrelle and Secretary Drury.

Resolved That we favor the submission to the qualified vectors of the State of a constitutional amendment providing for the extension of the suffrage to women."

The directors looked at each other in mild surprise but the was no escape.

Director F. W. Richardson sounded the alarm to quarters and then in a moment of desperation moved the adoption of the motion, which none of the directors had the courage to oppose.

So the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce is irretrievably committed to the cause of woman suffrage.

Pipe Across the Atlantic to supply Europe with natural gas for lighting and power purposes by means of a pipe from Oklahoma to St. Louis via the Atlantic Ocean. A project set out first by Mr. Alexander E. Evans of St. Louis. "Oilton" already supplies the States of Kansas and Indiana and the northwestern parts of Texas with Mr. Evans, in an interview, and we have made up our minds to pipe the gas if it is at all possible, to Europe." He explained that the gas cost nothing and the supply is practically inexhaustible.

present directors are Mayor Taylor, N. Hawks, F. J. Macaulay, E. J. Probst and Alexander Mackie. Several members of the old board have resigned owing to their inability to serve.

The club will give an entertainment on Dec. 10. Harmonic or Electrical 14th on December 10. Secretary H. C. Meertens, Dr. K. G. Miller and Mr. Hobson were appointed an entertainment committee, with full power to act. The entertainment will consist of solo, vaudeville numbers and will close with a dance.

More Railroad Developments.

Now that the distracting influences of a presidential campaign are over, projected enterprises whose development will be of the greatest importance to the northern part of the State are coming conspicuously to the front again, their promoters taking them up in dead earnest. Richard M. Hotaling's project of constructing an electric line from the southern end of Randall Island, better known now as Belvidere, across Richardson's bay and thence via San Rafael in a direct line through Sonoma, Napa and Yolo counties to Sacramento has been revived. It is represented that the negotiations with Eastern financiers for the floating of $12,000,000 in bonds for the construction of 178 miles of trackage adapted for both steam and electric operation have been resumed. Hotaling is confident that he will be in a position to begin work on this enterprise beginning of next March and he is planning the merger into his system of the Northern Electric railway which was built by the late Henry A. Butters and is being successfully operated between Stockton and Cucos Buttes, planned extending the Northern Electric northward to Redding and southward through San Joaquin and Contra Costa counties to tidewater at Oakland. If the contemplated merger of this system with Hotaling's California railway system is effected, there will in all probability be an important expansion of Butters' plans. Hotaling's earnestness in the project he has in hand is demonstrated in the statement that he has already invested $500,000 in surveys, terminal yard lands and the purchase of rights of way through the territory which the line will traverse.

As a purely local enterprise the building of this new line will be of incalculable benefit to the northern section of the State; but it assumes a vastly more important aspect when its development is intimated strongly to be closely associated with the entry here of one or more of the great transcontinental railroads working westward to invade California and in which some of the wealthiest men in the country are chiefly interested.

Venezuela's Foreign Troubles.

In its ultimatum to Venezuela, The Netherlands government fixed November 1st as the time limit for the revocation of President Castro's decree of May 14th, prohibiting the trans-shipment of goods destined for Venezuelan ports at Curacao. Castro has, however, refused to revoke the decree. Moreover, several days have passed since the Dutch time limit expired, and still no retaliatory action has been taken by The Netherlands. The concentration of a strong fleet in the waters of the Dutch West Indies, which lie in close proximity to the Venezuelan coast, has assumed the character of an effete bluff, which Castro has successfully called.

The Venezuelan President has created a peculiar situation in international politics which is, in fact, without parallel in international history. He has quarreled with every one of the leading naval powers of Europe and has snubbed the government of the United States also. Through the latter act he virtually suspended the operation of the Monroe doctrine, which President Cleveland threatened to apply in Castro's defense when he quarreled with Great Britain over the Orinoco boundary. The stand then taken by the United States resulted in the submission of the contention between the two governments to a court of arbitration. The court sustained the Venezuelan claims, but Castro has shown since no gratitude to the United States for the service it rendered him, for when differences arose between him and the American holders of Venezuelan concessions he turned down their claims, confiscated their properties and severed diplomatic relations. Through the offensive manner of his conduct he made himself persona non grata at Washington to the extent that the latter practically intimated to those European governments having grievances against Venezuela that they would be given a free hand to pursue any course toward the republic they should agree upon. International complications between Great Britain, Germany, France and Italy, each of which has its troubles with Castro, have prevented either one from taking the initiative and made co-operation impossible.

When Castro severed commercial and diplomatic relation with The Netherlands, it was supposed that its government would act promptly and independently, because, as a neutral power, whose independence is guaranteed by the great powers of Europe, she was in no sense involved in the latter's complicated embarrassments. But the Dutch are a peaceable and frugal people and they openly protested against the expense of an independent expedition against the South American republic; and, none of the European powers being willing to co-operate, The Hague government has temporized with Castro.

Thus, with no navy and a poorly defended coast at best, Castro has so artfully utilized the jealousies and conflicting interests of all the powers he has offended that he has, so far, been able to defy them all and still avert actual war. Indeed, The Netherlands is, for some reason, hesitating about backing up its ultimatum with a blockade of the Venezuelan ports, although it has enough warships assembled in the immediate vicinity of the Venezuelan coast to do so effectively at any time. Castro has demonstrated wonderful firmness and shrewd statesmanship in all his dealings with other governments. In every international contention he has been able to make a showing that the moral issues are in his favor, which has caused his foes to shrink from the responsibility of using force to back up their claims.

In publishing the statement that "eight times as many marriages as divorces is the record announced for Alameda county for October," the Chronicle cynically asks the question: "Isn't Alameda county a little more than up to date when it begins to compete its marriage rate in terms of divorces?" Well, the comparison is not as discreditable to Alameda county as a similar comparison made in some other counties might be to them.

The Western Pacific Company is pushing tracklaying along the south side of the city vigorously. It is now announced that the rails will be laid to the new ferry slip at the westerly end of the north training wall of the harbor within a week. Of course, there is a lot of ballasting and rail adjustment yet to be done before the new line will be ready for regular traffic.

With only one-half of the vote cast at the polls on Tuesday so far reported and compiled, it shows that the proposition to change the seat of government has been defeated by over 32,500 majority. The southern counties rolled up a big vote against it, which demonstrates clearly that they are still chasing that will-o'-the-wisp State division in that quarter.

The courteous interchange of messages between Bryan and Taft shows that the recent campaign was conducted on such thoroughly unobjectionable lines that the result has left no hard feelings to rankle in the breast of the vanquished or victor.

An Installment Plan Decision.

The decision rendered yesterday by Superior Judge Harris to the effect that "a conditional vendee"—that is, a person who is so designated in a contract purchasing goods on the instalment plan, cannot be prosecuted criminally for refusing to make the payments or restoring the property, is one of unusual interest. The statute gives the credit houses using "conditional vendee" contract forms, no means of enforcing the contract and no remedy for its violation, however fraudulent the transaction may appear on its face, except such as may be obtainable by civil action. The decision has a far-reaching effect, as a vast amount of credit trading has been done throughout the State. But now that attention has been called to the defect in the law, the Legislature at its coming session will doubtless cure it by putting "a conditional vendee," on the same legal status as "a lessee" or "bailee," either of which can be proceeded against criminally in the case of fraud.

The election returns in Los Angeles county have made the cruel exposure that the boosters of that section have been deliberately stuffing the record of registrations. Before the election claims were made that the county contained 102,169 registered voters. The actual vote on Tuesday last was 55,084, which shrinkage shows that the records of that county are carrying 47,085 registered "dead" or bogus voters. That beats the record made by San Francisco before the re-registration law was enacted, when the Great Register and Langley's Directory were systematically manipulated so as to carry about ten thousand absentees and dead men which were fraudulently voted in a way that would best serve the purposes of the party bosses. But the boomsters of the Southland are ready to do almost anything to take in the visiting stranger.

HARVEST DANCE AT HOME CLUB LAST EVENING

MISS ANN MCILRATH.

Those attending the harvest dance at the Home Club last evening enjoyed a pleasant evening. The pretty ball room in the attractive clubhouse was decorated with pumpkins, jack-o'-lanterns and witches all suggestive of the season. A most unique feature were the witches riding on brooms which were hung on the walls. The stage was set to represent an outdoor scene and across the sky appeared to be witches flying on their broomsticks, the effect was very realistic.

Decorations of huckleberry and red peppers were strewn between the arches, the entire effect being very picturesque. The witches were cut from black paper and were the work of Mrs. William Leach, a club member.

Dancing was indulged until midnight. Supper was served in the banquet hall, the table being decorated with a huge bowl of autumn foliage placed in the center. Doughnuts, cheese and coffee completed the idea of the harvest season.

There was a very good attendance and the ball room was a pretty scene with its daintily gowned guests.

Among those present were Mrs. John Bakewell, president of the club wearing an imported gown of white silk with touches of black. Miss May Coogan, pretty white lingerie gown; Miss Florence Brown, pale blue messaline; Mrs. Harry Carlton, white point desprit over pink silk; Mrs. I. N. Miller, in a very striking gown of pink, combined with black. Mrs. H. C. Capwell, pale blue director's gown with yoke of duchess lace. Mrs. Robert Grimes, white silk. Mrs. William A. The dance of last evening was the social event of the club's season. An enjoyable winter is anticipated by club members. Section work has been introduced in the club, three sections have been formed, one for the study of Browning, a department in arts and crafts and a third which will make a study of practical gardening. For the latter section an instructor has been engaged from the University of California.

by Mrs. Wickham Havens. Mrs. Edward Engs' gown of yellow spangled chiffon, with a beaded effect in blue and yellow, was extremely becoming.

Miss Henry Rosenfeld wore an exquisite gown of lavender satin, richly embroidered.

Autumn leaves were most effectively used in the house decorations, the autumn effects being carried throughout the reception rooms. In the dining room violets and lilies of the valley combined with the autumn foliage produced a most artistic effect.

About one hundred and seventy-five cards were issued for the elaborate affair. Mrs. Havens is one of the most charming of hostesses her affairs always being beautifully appointed.

WEDDING DATE.

The date for the wedding of Mrs. Blanche Soobie and John Eugene Mauerhan has been set for the evening of Wednesday, November 11, at 8:30. The Rev. W. H. Reedy of East Oakland will be the officiating clergyman. The ceremony will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Wilcox, of 416 Walsworth avenue. Mr. Mauerhan is building a home in the East Piedmont Heights district.

This afternoon a pretty affair was given in honor of the young bride-elect, when Mrs. J. M. Bonner of 416 Walsworth avenue was the gracious hostess.

About a dozen close friends enjoyed the pleasures of the afternoon. A pretty feature was the cobweb party, many colored ribbons were woven in and out about the rooms, each ribbon being attached to a pretty favor for the finder. The gift attached to the ribbon given the guest of honor was a beautiful engagement cup and saucer. Some of the guests enjoyed an informal game of cards. The living room was prettily decorated with ferns while in the dining room the decorations were of violets and delicate ferns. Delightful refreshments were served at the conclusion of the afternoon's festivities.

ENJOYABLE EVENING.

A most enjoyable Halloween party was held at the home of Miss Lucile Baily, Channing way October 31. The decorations and amusements of the evening were characteristic of the night and many original ideas were carried out by the Misses Baily and a half dozen of their friends who acted as joint hostesses on this occasion.

About thirty guests enjoyed the evening among them being the Misses

Care of Silver.
Pieces of silver that are seldom used should be wrapped in Canton flannel cases, never in flannels or other woolens as they absorb the moisture and cause the silver to tarnish. To clean silver rub with a mixture of whiting and Gold Dust washing powder. A good way to clean large pieces of silver that are covered with a great amount of ornaments, is to place them in a kettle of warm water in which has been dissolved a tablespoonful of Gold Dust washing powder. Line the kettle with pieces of cloth and lay pieces of cloth between the silver. Let the water come gradually to the boiling point. Rinse in clear, hot water, dry with soft towels and polish with cloths.

THEATRICAL MAN STOLE PRETTY HEIRESS

Police Say Musician Took Away Farmer's Daughter to Educate Her for the Stage -- Recover Girl in Hotel.

CHICAGO Nov 6.—P. H. Wilson, 31 years of age, a musician and theatrical agent, is under arrest at a police station charged with disorderly conduct in connection with the disappearance of Miss Clara Lietz, 16 years old, from Kankakee, Ill.

The girl is the daughter of John Lietz, a wealthy farmer of Elgin, Ill., and is heiress to a fortune consisting of a large estate in Germany. Wilson was arrested at his home yesterday afternoon by detectives and the girl was found later at the Chicago Beach Hotel, on information furnished them by Wilson.

According to the police, Wilson met the girl at Kankakee and she became imbued with the idea of being an actress. Wilson returned to Chicago October 20 and the girl came on the same train in company with another girl of her age, whose whereabouts and name the police have been unable to learn.

Miss Lietz had been attending a private school in Kankakee until a year ago, and had lived with her father's relatives in the city and immediately after her disappearance they telegraphed to her father in Minnesota. He came to Chicago and learned that Wilson had been seen with the girl.

Afternoon souvenirs delighted the most fortunate and all had a merry time playing 500.

LOOK OUT FOR BOGUS GAS MAN!

Smooth-Tongued, Well-Dressed Thief Gaining Entrance to Homes by Fraudulent Means.

Everybody is cautioned to be on the watch for the bogus gas man, who is operating in Oakland. A number of complaints have been made about this man and there is a grave suspicion that he is a sneak thief, using the gas company as a cover for his operations. The plan of the man has been to visit houses and state to the people that there had been complaints about their service which he wanted to investigate, and in each instance he has made a complete search of the house.

Every person legitimately employed by the gas company carries a badge and written credentials. In addition to these each man has a written order from the company stating the errand on which he visits patrons. To obviate any danger of being victimized people visited by any person who represents himself as from the gas company will protect themselves by demanding that this person produce all of the credentials mentioned.

FAMILY BROKEN-HEARTED OVER ACCIDENT

Interment Tomorrow of Little Gertrude Davis, Fearfully Mangled by Car on Her Way From School.

BERKELEY, Nov. 6.—An inquest over the body of little Gertrude Davis, who was hit and fatally injured by a north-bound Telegraph avenue car at the intersection of Haste street yesterday afternoon will be held Monday night. The child was fearfully mangled, her body being almost cut in two by one of the car wheels as it passed directly across her abdomen. She was on her way to her home at 2641 Dwight, way of the Haste street school and was killed as she tried to avoid a slow moving vehicle which she did not see. Witness to the accident say it was almost unavoidable. Motorman W. R. Holling and Conductor J. W. Rowan, who composed the crew, were placed under arrest, but allowed to go on their own recognizance.

The little girl was a very pretty child and a prime favorite in the school and neighborhood, being only seven years of age. Her father is J. O. Davis, an attorney with offices in Oakland, and president of the Alameda County Bar Association. The family is prostrated over the affair. The interment will be held tomorrow morning.

The Victim of Drink

Needs Orrine Treatment—Cure Effected or Money Refunded.

Drink first destroys ambition; breaks up ties of friendship; it kills and buries love, and eventually destroys the family life.

Some of the best men in the world have been victims of drink and if there is not some member in your family that is suffering from this disease, you are indeed fortunate.

Drink cunningly destroys the will power, and while the drunkard wants to do what you tell him, he can't do it, and sometimes leaves the drink that he craves.

Medical treatment is necessary to destroy the craving and the Orrine will do.

It destroys the desire for liquor, so that the drink will not be missed, also cures the deranged digestion, weakened nerves and other ill effects of excessive drinking, restoring the patient to perfect health.

The remedy is absolutely harmless, is thoroughly scientific and is uniformly successful. It is sent with regular instructions enabling you to recover your money if Orrine fails to effect a cure.

ESCAPE THROUGH SMOKE AND FIRE

Students Clad Only in Night Clothes Fled Through Flames From School to Safety.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—About 150 students fled only in their night clothes through smoke and flames from the Hill Electrical School which was burned to the ground early today. The building, which is the old 18th end of a school under construction, was located in North Tacoma, a suburb of the city. The fire caught from the defective insulation who in the kitchen.

All of the students in the dormitories escaped uninjured, but lost most of their effects. They were asleep in their rooms almost half an hour after the fire began and many of them were forced to jump from second story windows to save their lives. The loss is estimated at $60,000. The structure was formerly known as the North Tacoma Hotel and had been used as a school about six weeks.

GAS THREATENS ENTIRE FAMILY

Escaping Fumes Detected in Time to Prevent Several Death at Early Hour.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—John Barber, a brazier, had a narrow escape from death and whole family came near being overcome by fumes of gas at an early hour this morning at the residence of Harry Rix, an ambulance driver, at 2260 Bryant street.

A little before midnight Barber who has resided in the house for the past two years, returned home and it is supposed that before retiring he inadvertently turned on the gas again after putting out the light. The fumes penetrated the entire house and had it not been that Rix is an early riser it is probable that the family would have slept on unconsciously.

The ambulance driver woke about 4:30 and detecting the strong odor of gas, found Barber unconscious, and with difficulty awoke his wife and child and his brother. An ambulance was summoned and Barber was taken to the Central Emergency hospital where, after working over him for an hour, the surgeon on duty stated he would recover.

Don't be afraid to give him plenty of cream for his H-O. It is a small price to pay for health and strength—and he doesn't need anything else for breakfast.

H-O is the "meat" of the choicest, selected oats, cooked in steam under high pressure—a process which dextrinizes the starch in the oats making them easily digested and retaining all their delicious "nutty" flavor. Ten or fifteen minutes' boiling prepares it for the table. Of course it costs a little more than ordinary raw "rolled oats," but it's worth it. Ask your grocer for H-O.

NEW PLAN FOR BUYING Isthmian Supplies

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The Isthmian Canal Commission has established a new plan in the purchase of supplies for the canal work. The method that has been in use is to make purchases of one or more articles at a time and become separated, but it is intended henceforth to purchase a six months' or a year's supply of standard articles. It is believed that by this means lower prices can be secured, as the quantity will be much larger than heretofore.

ONE KILLED IN WRECK OF STAGE

Brake Rod Snaps and Vehicle and Passengers Are Hurl ed Down Steep Grade.

SUSANVILLE, Nov. 6.—Whirling down the steep grade into what is known as the "Devils Corral" on the Shasta road, the four horse stage running from this city to Prather was wrecked yesterday killing Mrs. Williams, a passenger and bringing the other five occupants of the vehicle.

The wreck was caused by the snapping of the brake rod. Two of the animals were killed when the coach wheels struck a rock at the bottom of the hill, overturning the stage and throwing its occupants to the ground. Others injured were George B. Long, the driver, C. A. Rowland, of the Nevada Press company, Bruce Frazer of Susanville, sprained ankle. Ditta Benjamin and George Williams, little son of the woman killed, bruised. Mrs. Miller is a resident and large property owner of this city.

TO STOP FROLICS AT U. S. ARMY POST

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The war department has recently issued a circular to all military posts in which one of the officers had invariably like his wife when at the age of twenty. Grotz says he remembers the model well but has not seen her for six months. He is making inquiries regarding her identity and to the name she was usually was a man one. Said at times he would have given up the search if he had not been so interested in Africa for these animals and reptiles.

ART STUDY ROOSEVELT MAY FIND GIRL IS TO BE CURBED

FATHER BELIEVES HIS DAUGHTER WAS MODEL

Long Lost Girl Likely to Be Located by Painting Which Parent Sees--Thorough Investigation to Be Made.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—After searching for eighteen years for his daughter Thomas P. Smith of 182 La Salle street Chicago believes he has found a trace of her in two paintings by W. L. Gratz, a New York artist, with whom he consulted, who the artist, who is now trying to locate the model who posed for the pictures in the two paintings.

Eleven years ago a cousin to Smith's letter he was divorced from his wife in San Francisco and soon after she disappeared taking their little daughter with her. Her husband in court had awarded the child to the father. Smith patiently traced his former wife and after ten years located her in London, but the child was not with her and all the satisfaction he could get regarding her was that she had been left with relatives in Chicago.

HAZ LONG SEARCH
After a long search in Chicago, Smith returned to San Francisco and thence to recently he saw a picture by Gratz in which one of the figures had a strikingly like his wife when at the age of twenty. It was the second time he had seen the face in one of Gratz's pictures and so much did the likeness impress him that he wrote to the artist asking for particulars regarding the model, who he believes is his daughter.

Greco says he remembers the model well but has not seen her for six months. He is making inquiries regarding her identity and to the name she was usually was a man one. Said at times he would have given up the search if he had not been so interested in Africa for these animals and reptiles.

CANNOT SHOOT ALL ANIMALS HE SEES

Giraffes and Wild Asses Safe From "Big Stick," But Lions and Reptiles Can Have It.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—It having been announced that President Roosevelt has declined the offer of the British foreign office to grant him special license entitling him to the freedom of the English game preserves in South Africa when he makes his hunting trip in the spring, his bag will be limited by the law which applies to every sportsman shooting in that country. The ordinary license requires that the game laws be strictly observed.

These laws, say New Yorkers who have hunted in Africa, give him permission to kill only the following animals and birds: Two male elephants, two rhinoceroses, ten hippopotami, twenty-one antelope, including two kudus, two gnu, and one bongo, two cape hogs, two cape wolves, ten chevrotains, two musk deer, two mountain storks, two ostriches, two turtles and one chimpanzee.

He will be forbidden to shoot giraffes, wild asses, eland, zebra, female or young elephants, vultures of any species, owls of any species, add-billed storks, whale-headed storks, crowned cranes, okapi, female buffalo, female or young ostriches, and Speck's tragulus, females.

There are no restrictions placed upon the number of lions, leopards and crocodiles that he may wish to shoot. They have no closed season in Africa for these animals and reptiles.

GOVERNOR MAY BE WITNESS IN CASE

If State Fails to Break Down
Night-Riders, Patterson
Will Testify.

UNION CITY, Tenn., Nov. 6.—General developments are anticipated during the hearing of the habeas corpus petition filed in behalf of fifty alleged night-riders now being held by the military authorities in connection with the recent raids in the vicinity of Clarkdale, which will begin this afternoon.

It may be necessary that the press also expect its hand as to the evidence which has been secured. Should the State fail to break down the contentions of the petitioners, Governor Patterson will be called on to testify. It will be the first time in the history of a State that a Governor has testified in a homicide case.

Eleven prisoners will be brought from Camp No. 10 to be tried on charges of being members of the Ku Klux Klan, and the trial will be held in the courtroom of Captain Quentin Franklin, the commanding officer of the military detachment, and although there are warrants have not been issued. It will be the contention of the State that the fact that the habeas corpus is sufficient to sustain the contention of the attorneys for the men that they are being held without civil warrants. However, the all important contention of the petitioners is as to the right of the Governor to end out the State troops and the ruling of the court will set a precedent in Tennessee.

CARUSO, SEETHING WITH RAGE, DENIES WEDDING

NEW YORK, November 6.—Enrico Caruso, the famous operatic tenor, declared yesterday that his enemies were seeking to ruin him by spreading a report that he had sold his soul to the Devil. Behrouz, a pretty American girl whom he met at the Metropolitan Opera House, Caruso was greatly wrought up over what he termed the outrageous plot of his enemies.

This lying story originated among bitter enemies of Caruso in Southern Italy, he declared. "It is all false. I never heard of her before. It is all a plot to break up my character."

After it was circulated in Southern Italy it was sent to Germany to turn my friends against me. I told Germany to write to America and tell them how now follows due to the American public. It must be stopped. I have married no one. Cannot let me alone a minute."

According to an Italian newspaper, L'Espresso, recently had the infidelity of the tenor and his former wife become public. This resulted in long telegrams from Miss Lillian Gish, actress, who represented herself as a beautiful American girl with a lot of money.

The paper says that Caruso was not slow in answering the alleged missile.

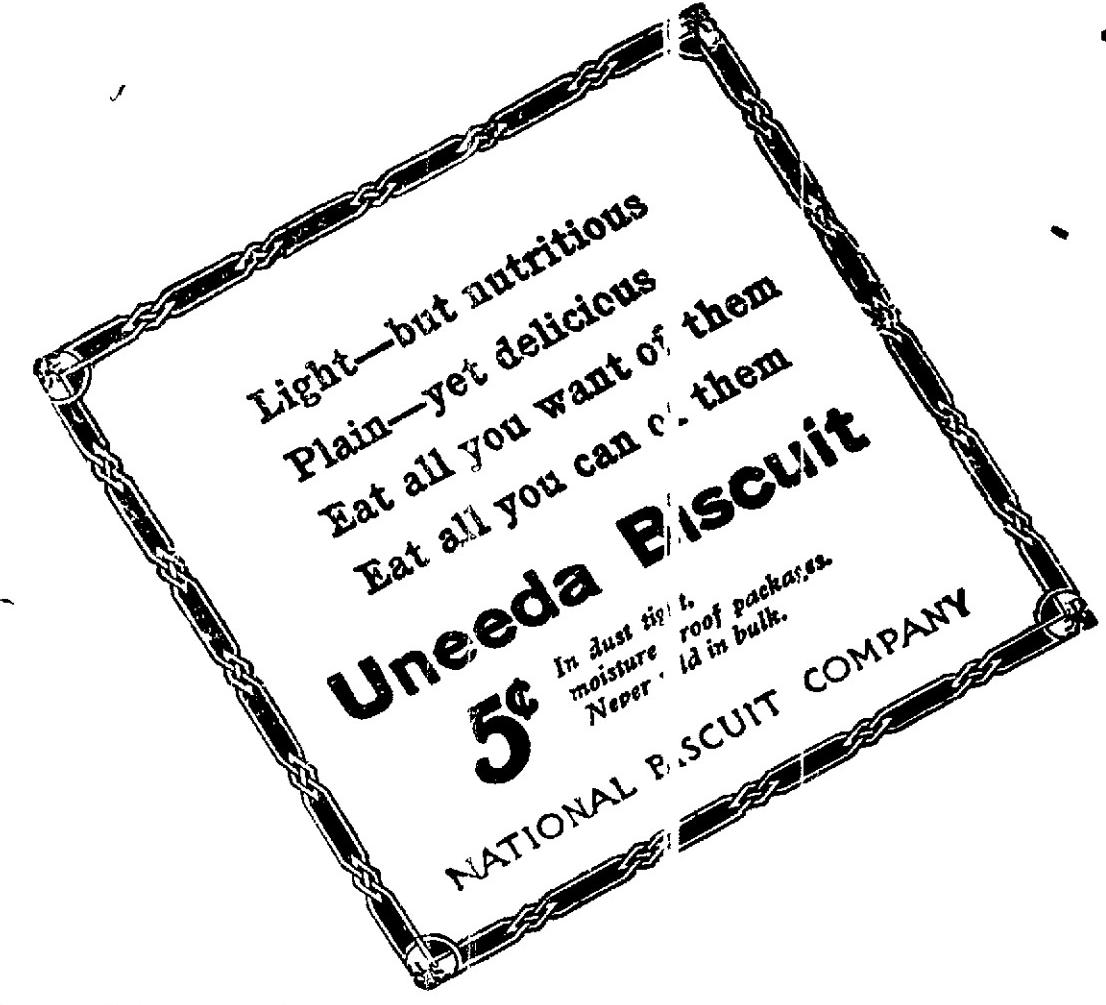

That a meeting was arranged and that the marriage of the pair was duly solemnized soon after.

LABOR HAS PROBLEM OF DAY

FEDERATION MAY BE PLEDGED TO PARTY

One Million Votes Involved in Political War That Revolves Around President Gompers and His Policies.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Ready to answer before the convention attacks what have been made public by his course in the recent Presidential campaign, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, left today for Denver, where the twenty-eighth annual meeting of that organization begins next Monday. In a few days he will be in the city. Mr. Gompers is quoted as saying that he is not a candidate for re-election in the sense that he seeks the office, although he would be glad to serve again if it is the will of the convention.

WILL NOT DESERT.

"I am, however, in the Federation of Labor," said Mr. Gompers, "and if I don't stay as president shall stay in the ranks. I feel in the opinion I have reached and think I have done right. I have endeavored to give voice to the wrongs labor has endured and I have endeavored to have them righted. I was told in the beginning of the campaign that a gentleman high in the council of the Republican party said he would burn brads would build me so fat that I could not stand on my fire. I know I risked that when I began the fight in the cause of labor."

CUP NOT FULL.

"More criticism that has been thrown against me during the last few days undoubtedly will arise. There was a lot of it during the convention, notably the strong cabinet position I took. I told as early as last August that there was no office within the gift of the people or of the government for which I was a candidate or which I would accept. I meant that then and I mean it now."

MAY PLEDGE UNION.

DENVER, Nov. 6.—Politics will furnish the principal topics of discussion at the 28th annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, which opens Monday. It is said by local union leaders to be probable that the federation, with its 2,000,000 members and more than 1,000,000 voters, will adopt a permanent political policy through an amendment to its constitution. There will be vigorous opposition from the beginning to binding the federation to any political alliance and an effort will be made to bind the organization to keep entirely out of politics, both local and national, in the future. The matter will be brought up soon after the convention assembles in the form of resolutions both approving and condemning the action of President Samuel Gompers and the members of the executive board in supporting the Democratic ticket in the last campaign. These resolutions will be referred to the committee on resolutions and will not be generally discussed till near the end of the meeting.

SOCIALISTS MAN GUNS.

The fight against politics in the organization will probably be led by Socialist members who have always opposed the introduction of political questions into the federation. They will be backed by a number of Republicans who have opposed the action of the federation leaders in the present campaign and by many delegates who consider the recent campaign sufficient proof that the federation can accomplish nothing in national politics. It is believed by those who have kept closely informed on the matter that the opposition will be strong enough to prevent the convention deciding definitely on a vigorous political policy.

BRITT SUIT OPENS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—An action brought by James Edward Britt to recover $500 from Louis Helbing, which the plaintiff says he paid him deposit for some property on McAllister street, near Lyon street, only to discover the title Helbing had was faulty, was partly heard yesterday. Attorney Louis Ferrari, who represented Britt, testified that Helbing offered him money to report to Britt that the title of the property was good. Helbing said his offer was only to pay for having the title cleared.

COINING NEW $5 PIECES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—The mint began the coining of new $5 gold pieces yesterday on a different plan from any heretofore tried in the world. In order to allow the pieces to be "stacked" the impression on the coins is to be depressed. The rim of the coin will thus present a perfectly flat surface. The idea was suggested by Emil Willard, collector of Boston to President Roosevelt. The same design will be used on the $2.50 pieces. All the coins will bear the "In God We Trust" motto.

FIRST PRESIDENT DEAD.

HAVANA, Nov. 6.—The death of ex-President Thomas Estrada Palma, at the home of relatives in Santiago province, yesterday, will be a blow to the country, from which he had long been absent, complicated with pneumonia. Governor Mugon yesterday issued a decree eulogizing the lofty patriotism of the first president of Cuba, and directing that he be given a national funeral. The body will lie in state.

GOVERNOR NAMED.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 6.—By a gain of 5500 votes in the Fifth Congressional district over 1906, the Republicans have elected John M. Morehead by a majority of 36 over A. L. Brooks (D.), who was named to succeed W. W. Kitchen, governor-elect.

BUILDS FIRE, BABY'S CARRIAGE AND INFANT IS INCINERATED ALIVE

GALENA, Ill., Nov. 6.—While his mother was absent from the room, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Raip built a fire under the baby carriage in which his eight-months-old brother was lying. The flames communicated with the coverings and the infant was so badly burned that it died. The child explained his act by saying he wanted to keep the baby warm.

LIVERMORE HAS BIG BLAZE

Early Morning Fire Nearly Ends in Tragedy—Daring Rescue of a Family.

LIVERMORE Nov. 6.—A fire, which broke out in the rear of the brewery of D. F. Bernall about 3:15 o'clock this morning, destroyed two structures, partially destroyed another, and resulted in a loss of about $10,000. But for the prompt action of Isidor Durand, a moving picture operator, an entire family, that of Bernall, might have been incinerated in the roaring flames.

The origin of the fire is still unknown. Durand was awakened by the crackling of the flames and aroused the Bernall family, who left the burning building before escape was cut off.

The flames had gained such headway that it was impossible to extinguish them before the buildings were destroyed.

The brewers and the saloon of Gunnar and Bonelli were razed and the store and telephone exchange, owned by Joseph Fletcher, was partially burned.

RECOMMEND HARBOR WORK

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Important recommendations for improving Mare Island strait, and the approaches thereto, are contained in the report of the board of engineers offices of the army and navy and an estimate is made of $1,757,000 for the work this amount to include a self-contained and self-propelling dredge, which will require about $125,000 a year to maintain.

The recommendation provides that the strait be dredged to a 30-foot depth with a width of 600 feet over the bar and up to the turn, a width of 400 feet from the turn to the receiving ship wharf, which is 1000 feet from that point to the north end of the quay, the dykes within the strait and at the lower end of Mare Island are extended and that the channel in San Pablo Bay is to be dredged to a width of 500 feet and a depth of 30 feet, all depths being the mean low water.

TANGLED LOVE AFFAIR CAUSED PRETTY GIRL TO END HER LIFE

ALAMEDA, Nov. 6.—Loved by one musician whom she did not love, and loving another musician who did not love her, apparently had nothing to do with the complicated relations which troubled the life of Miss Ada Boehmer, caused her to become despondent and finally end her earthly existence by taking bichloride of mercury. This much was brought out in the inquest held in the case by Coroner C. L. Thedford this morning. Miss Boehmer died at a local sanitarium Monday evening, having to be sent there Sunday from her room in the Adams Hotel in Oakland.

Cesario Brandt, the orchestra of the Orpheum Theater, Oakland, was the musician who loved Miss Boehmer, but whose love was not reciprocated, and Edward J. Lauda, leader of the orchestra of the Alcazar Theater of San Francisco, was the musician whom Miss Boehmer loved and who did not reciprocate the young woman's affection for him.

Brandt was the first witness to testify at the inquest. In giving his testimony he said in part:

TELLS LIFE STORY.

"Ada Boehmer was born in Canada in 1884. I think at places known as Picton. I knew her since 1895, and ever since I made her acquaintances, up to the time of her death, I entertained more than a feeling of friendship for her. When I first knew her she was working as a telephone operator in San Francisco. Later she worked in a music store in San Francisco that was conducted by Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Brant. She liked her so much that I proposed to her three times, but she always put me off with an indefinite answer. I argued with her that she was considerably younger than I was and that I, being a man, naturally knew more of the world and its ways. I told her that I thought she was standing in her own light and in my light by not answering to try to impress her. Arguments never seemed to impress her in the way that I desired that they should. I practically cared for her and provided her with a home and finances for three years.

LIVED AT HIS HOME.

"She occasionally lived with my mother and sister in San Francisco and in Oakland, and at other times roomed in San Francisco and in Oakland. It was while she was living at the Bodie Apartments in San Francisco that I learned that my cause was hopeless and that my goose was cooked. That was some time before the fire. But I could never forget her even after she turned me down, and told her that if she ever married anyone else and was still in need of a good friend I would be the first to give her my services.

Miss Boehmer, during which time we did not speak, but he had a way of smoothing these troubles over and renewing the friendship again.

TALKED OF DEATH.

"I was naturally a little sore when I found out that I was not 'it' but I forgot my sorrows after a time and we were again friendly. I saw the girl last Saturday at the Adams Hotel. I know that she had been ill and that she was recovering from the effects of an operation. I was in the habit of dropping in at the hotel every day to sing to her and get a smile. I know that the girl had suffered severe pains and that she was in the habit of taking sleeping powders to ease her mental and physical worries. I last saw her alive at the hospital in Alameda, to which she was taken Sunday from her room in the Adams Hotel. The girl had occasionally mentioned to me that she would like to have you charge of my funeral arrangements."

Dr. C. G. BULL testified as to the autopsy. He said that it showed that death was due to bichloride of mercury.

Dr. John Purvis of Oakland, who had been the young woman's physician, said that he had performed an operation on her for appendicitis and other ailments on October 1, and that she appeared to be improving in health steadily.

Dr. Purvis stated that Miss Boehmer was of despondent disposition and had occasionally heard her say: "I would be better off dead."

Mr. Cole, clerk of the Adams Hotel, told to Mr. Brandt and by some mistake the operator connected me with Miss Boehmer's room."

DEATH DUE TO POISON.

Dr. C. G. BULL testified as to the autopsy. He said that it showed that death was due to bichloride of mercury.

Mr. Cole, clerk of the Adams Hotel,

KNEW HER FIVE YEARS.

Henry Joyaux, an undertaker from San Francisco, testified that he had known Miss Boehmer for five years. He said that the last time that he saw her was six months ago. At that time she said to him: "If I should die I would like to have you charge of my funeral arrangements."

The verdict found by the coroner's jury was that Miss Boehmer had died from the effects of bichloride of mercury, taken with suicidal intent.

NOVEL WEAPON TO FRACTURE SKULL

For Making Remarkable Odor, Man Beats Another With a Piece of Cheeses.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—A cheese was used so well as a weapon last night that a hospital skull. The man, a companion when he came to the issuance of a writ of mandamus compelling the town trustees to call an election to allow West Berkeley to withdraw from the other parts of the town. The defendant said that the petition of J. E. Waite, a West Berkeley druggist, and others, should state that the trustees fraudulently refused to issue the election rule.

According to law, argued Stants, this is the only point on which the writ of mandamus could be issued. Judge Nutting, who opposed the petitioners, contended that the writ should be issued compelling the trustees to permit voters of Berkley to declare themselves at the polls.

BERKELEY WINS IN FIRST ROUND

Judge Ellsworth Sustains Demurrer Which Objects to Calling of Election.

The town of Berkeley has won the first round of the fight against the residents of West Berkeley, who desire to form a town of their own.

Judge Ellsworth this afternoon sustained the demurral of City Attorney Edmund C. Stants of Berkley, which objects to the issuance of a writ of mandamus compelling the town trustees to call an election to allow West Berkeley to withdraw from the other parts of the town.

The defendant said that the petition of J. E. Waite, a West Berkeley druggist, and others, should state that the trustees

MENTION SUGGESTED FOR ANTI-TRUST ACT

Deputy District Attorney Walter Tupper has written to Senator Curtiss, author of the anti-trust act by act name, suggesting an amendment to the act which will fix the penalty for violating the law at a term of imprisonment either in the county jail or state penitentiary. As the law now reads it is said by lawyers it is invalid inasmuch as it fails to specify the place of imprisonment.

MRS. MARTIN BEAT JOHN, HE SAYS

IN RELAYS, IS CLAIM

Cross-Examination of Sheriff Boyce Introduces Letter Mrs. Martin Wrote Coach-ing John About Barn Case.

In the case of Mrs. Isabella J. Martin, who is charged with the blowing up of the home of Judge Ogden in this city, the cross-examination of Sheriff Boyce of Trinity county was resumed this morning by Attorney Frank.

The sheriff admitted that he had said to the defendant in Weaverville that it would be better for her to tell the whole story. He also admitted that he had stated to her that he believed it would relieve her conscience. He denied having said that he hoped the gates of San Quentin would close upon her. He admitted that he had decked up as witness for two nights, without a warrant, a Chinese who had been a servant of Mrs. Martin. He showed, however, that he had acted in this matter at the suggestion of the District Attorney of Trinity county.

TELEPHONED TO ATTORNEY.

Frick asked if the sheriff had not been asked by Mrs. Martin to telephone to Redding for an attorney for John when he was arrested for burning the Morris barn.

Boyce replied that he had been so asked and that he had telephoned to an attorney in Redding and that the attorney had refused to act, claiming at the time that he had done work for Mrs. Martin before and had not been paid for it. The witness said he had taken a shotgun from the cabin of the defendant, but had returned it to "Baby" John Martin, and that it had later been auctioned off.

On re-direct examination, Sheriff Boyce stated that he was present in the court in Weaverville when "Baby" John Martin appeared as a witness against Mrs. Martin, on the charge of arson.

KEPT HER FROM "BABY" JOHN.

He was asked if the defendant had made any attempt to approach the witness (John) and replied that she had but that he (the witness) had gotten between her and the lad and prevented their holding converse. He also stated that after he had taken Mrs. Martin back to jail he examined the contents of a hand bag which she carried.

FOUND LETTER IN BAG.

Mr. Hall then handed a document to the witness which the latter stated he had found in the satchel in question. The instrument was ready to the jury by the gentleman, the intent being to show that the defendant had originally intended to teach "Baby" John as to what he was to testify to in the matter of the burning of the Morris barn in Weaverville. In the event of his inability to do that she had provided written instructions, the delivery of which, however, was prevented by the interference of Sheriff Boyce, proof of which was found as alleged by the finding of the following missive.

THE LETTER.

"John, If I don't see you again, demand a fury trial and a change of Judge. When I went down I took with me three — of phosphorus, as you know that was all we had," he claimed to have found in the bag.

"The cyanide materials in the same bottles you know nothing about, save that as you remember they were given to me by John Simpson, who I remember as an answer. You remember when I asked him when I sent for men to inquire of the employment agency at Oakland.

EXPLAINS EXPLOSIVES.

"The sugar-of-lead for preparing skins I had with me, taking to the governor. They found our cyanide materials on the top shelf in the cabin kitchen in that house. They took them up in their hands, if they put you on the stand testify to the truth—that you were at home all of Sunday night, or the cabin down further to send a letter to John Redding, whom sent a letter of the H. P. F. stage."

AS TO THE SHOES.

"Monday, I insisted on putting new nails in the shoes because you slipped with Louis cutting wood and bark."

In the afternoon we went down to the Hoffman and I went on the side hill while getting bark and I would not allow you to get your breakfast under the trees in your shoes. After breakfast we went up to Supton Springs and cleaned it out.

THE TWO MEN.

"Two miners passed while we were up there—a big man and a little one. Big man had high boots. Little man had low boots. They came home and after lunch went down to the forks of the roads and nailed up box. That is the truth and stick to it. If you went hunting near old China cabin tell them I say, 'I know that you never went to the barn.'

Detective Hogkinson was then recalled by the prosecutor on and was asked a number of questions by both sides.

WENT AT HIM AGAIN.

Mrs. Sophie Johnson, who was a tenant of Mrs. Martin's in October, 1906, testified that as far as she knew "Baby" John had always been as a good boy and that she never knew him to play with other children. She also stated that on one occasion she had seen him with Mrs. Martin and that the latter had told her that she had on one occasion beaten "Baby" John until she got tired and that then she rested and went at him again.

ALLEGES CRUELTY.

Louis Ascher, fruit man and deputy constable, was the next witness. He was introduced for the purpose of showing cruelty on the part of the defendant. Mrs. John Martin, he testified, had about four years ago, beaten him.

He was asked by Hynes if anything had occurred while he was passing the house in question to attract his attention, and replied:

"About three or four years ago, I was going by Mrs. Martin's house. The boy was there. He had long curly hair at the time. He was watering the flowers on the back porch and he wet a big dog that was there. Mrs. Martin grabbed the hose out of his hand and put the nozzle up to his face and said: 'I'll drown you.'

I hollered up to her and said: 'I'll drown you.' and told her that she ought not to do that and she said to me, 'You big brute, I'll drown the dog—'

BOARD ORDERS MOVING PICTURE SHOWS INTO CLASS A STRUCTURES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—The Board of Public Works, at a meeting held at noon today, made an order that in future all nickelodeons constructed in this city must be in Class A buildings, with the same exits and protection as against fire as are required in theaters. This order does not affect the houses already open, but will probably tend to lessen the number erected in the down-town section.

GRAND AVENUE HEIGHTS

AT THE HEAD OF LAKE MERRITT—IN THE PATH OF PIEDMONT—ADJOINING ADAMS POINT—SEVEN MINUTES FROM FOURTEENTH AND BROADWAY—WILL UNQUESTIONABLY BE OAKLAND'S MOST FASHIONABLE RESIDENTIAL CENTER.

To which class do you belong?

The Working People

You can't come next Sunday, and by arranging to pay us from 15 to 20 per cent down (within a few days) and about $25.00 a month thereafter, secure a lot that within a short time will increase in value so that you can get double what you put in.

This is no idle dream.

It is a fact that an investigation will prove.

These lots will increase in value at least $600 each every year.

For $300 down you can get a $2000 lot. By paying $25 a month you pay in $300 more within a year.

That makes $600 all.

And there are a number of $2000 lots that will easily sell for $2750 the day the street work is completed.

Deeding the agent's commission for selling, you'll get $600 net or a profit $600 on a $600 investment.

You thought to look into it.

100 per cent can be made within 18 months on a $300 cash down investment.

The School Teacher

There isn't a school teacher in this county with any eye some day, and now is the time to buy the lot.

Grand Ave. Heights is destined to become the social residential center of Alameda county.

No residences costing less than $3500 will be allowed to be erected.

The street work will be the finest money can buy.

The tract is within the city limits of Oakland and within 7 minutes by car from Fourteenth and Broadway.

Piedmont is approaching it in one direction and Adams Point in the other direction.

It commands a magnificent view of the Bay and the hills right at the edge of Oakland's new city parks.

At the foot of the tract runs Grand Ave. Boulevard and to the north the proposed Key Route extension.

There are lots, which you can pick out Sunday if you are careful, which will be priceless a few years from now.

You simply cannot afford to pass by such an opportunity.

I bought to look into it.

100 per cent can be made within 18 months on a $300 cash down investment.

The Business Man

You'll want a fine home of your own some day, and now is the time to buy the lot.

There must be some day, just as there is in every big city in the U. S., and when this district has been established will unquestionably command a view of Lake Merritt.

Furthermore, they never tear down houses to build up a fashionable neighborhood.

The social center of Oakland will be no exception and will be built upon some undeveloped land.

Piedmont is approaching it in one direction and Adams Point in the other direction.

It commands a magnificent view of the Bay and the hills right at the edge of Oakland's new city parks.

At the foot of the tract runs Grand Ave. Boulevard and to the north the proposed Key Route extension.

You'll have to pay $3000 or $4000 for a choice lot in Grand Ave. Heights 2 or 3 years from now.

You simply cannot afford to pass by such an opportunity.

I bought to look into it.

100 per cent can be made within 18 months on a $300 cash down investment.

The Society Leader

There is no residential social center in Oakland at the present time.

There must be some day, just as there is in every big city in the U. S., and when this district has been established will unquestionably command a view of Lake Merritt.

BADGES ARE PRESENTED TO FIRE DEPARTMENT HEADS FRIENDS TENDER GIFTS AT FEAST

Gold Symbols of Authority,
Studded With Diamonds,
Given Ball and Short.

There are gold badges studded with diamonds, on the breasts of Chief N. A. Ball and Second Assistant Chief Sam H. Short of the fire department today which were not there before.

These symbols of authority are the gifts of friends but, at the same time, have the sanction of the officers at the present time. The second assistant chief administration and service in an outfit that they also have the approval of the public.

Up to yesterday the firefighters referred to had worn ordinary metallic shields as indication of authority, a fact which was a source of annoyance to many of their friends, who held the officers in high esteem for personal, as well as professional, reasons.

George McDonald, first assistant chief of the department, had a ready been provided with an ornamental badge which, in itself, is a thing of richness and beauty. Now all the heads of the fire department are provided with costly and beautiful evidences of rank.

(UPPER) GOLD MEDAL PRESENTED TO FIRE CHIEF BALL

(LOWER) GOLD MEDAL PRESENTED TO ASSISTANT CHIEF SAM SHORT.

The bestowal upon Chief Ball and Second Assistant Chief Short took place last night at the Saddle Rock Restaurant, and the mayor of the city, Frank K. Mott, acted as master of ceremonies. WAS APPRECIATED.

The selection of the mayor as the presiding officer of the festivity was appreciated by the guests for the reason that it showed that through him, as the representative of the people, the badges, instead of being testimonials of personal friendship, really expressed the appreciation and good wishes of the taxpayers of the city.

Manager Kishler had prepared a bountiful spread, which was discussed with a relish, as follows:

Martini Cocktail
Oysters on the Half Shell
Salted Almonds Celery on Branch
Consommé in Cup

Sinfonia of Chicken Halibut Johnville
Sweetbreads Soufflé in Caissons
Braised Salad, French Dressing

Blushing Half-Squab Chicken Maryland
Julienne Potatoes Cauliflower au Gratin
Napoleon Ice Cream

Cheese Fruits Cakes
Venetian Chocolate
BADGES PRESENTED.

After the good things had been taken of Mayor Mott presented the beautiful badge referred to as Chief Ball and Dr. Mehrmann presented the other badge to Assistant Chief Short.

Speeches were then made by Judge George Samuels, Judge Smith, Daniel McDonald, Past President Chief McDonald, City Auditor George Gross, Chief Wilson of the police department, John F.
